

COMMON MISTAKES

Is your agency making networking errors?

Even with digital tools, agencies often miss opportunities due to inconsistent branding, slow follow-ups, or scattered contact information. For agency and team leads, these errors impact client perception.

- 1 Disjointed branding
- 2 Slow lead capture
- 3 Scattered contact info

01

Sharing too many links

Your team shouldn't have to list five different links (website, LinkedIn, portfolio, WhatsApp) during a networking chat. It's clunky, unprofessional, and often leads to missed connections.

- 1 Overwhelms recipients
- 2 Slows down connection
- 3 Looks unorganized

02

Inconsistent team branding

When each team member creates their own digital presence, your agency's brand can appear fragmented. A unified approach is key to professionalism and building client trust.

- 1 Diluted brand image
- 2 Hard to manage
- 3 Looks less professional
